

Career Exploration

The time to start is NOW!

What's important to you?

What do YOU think is important to consider when choosing a career?

Putting Together the Pieces

- You

- Interests
- Skills
- Personality
- Education
- Work Style
- Team Orientation
- Leadership Style

- The Career

- What do people with this career really do on a daily basis
- Education Required
- Skills Needed
- Salary
- Outlook

Where do you start?

Learn more about possible careers

- Talk to people who have careers you think you might enjoy
- Research online using reliable sources
 - See the career section of the PMHS counseling website

Learn more about YOURSELF

- Career assessments can help

GOAL: Find careers that match your unique needs and qualities

Remember...

- Choosing a career is a process...no single assessment or activity can tell you what you should do with your life.
- The more you learn about yourself and possible careers, the more likely it will be that you'll choose a career you can enjoy and be successful in.
